Workshops & Presenters

A SCAM U ~ DON DARE

The best way to avoid being a scam victim is to be forewarned. Don Dare's class, Scam U, will be an enjoyable, upbeat way to increase your awareness of some of the many ways Seniors are financially and mentally exploited and how to avoid being a victim.

The WATE 6 On Your Side Consumer Reporter says, "It's my love of history and the chance to report current events that peaked my interest in becoming a local reporter. In that role we have the opportunity to explain issues and to highlight the pros and cons to our viewers."

B ABC's OF MEDICARE EDUCATION ~ LAURA TAYLOR

Laura Taylor is a licensed independent insurance broker with Hughes and Associates. Her mission is to answer your questions and to provide extraordinary customer service. She specializes in helping seniors understand their options when becoming eligible for Medicare and during their Annual Enrollment Period.

Laura is a member at New Life UMC and started New Life's Lunch & Learn for Seniors last fall. She is married to Chip Taylor and has a son, Mason. She enjoys gardening, reading, and helping others.

C TALES OF THE TRAIL ~ ALAN ASHWORTH

The Appalachian Trail Chaplaincy is a continuing ministry of the Holston Conference of the United Methodist Church in which a chaplain is commissioned each year to hike the entire 2,190-mile trail to offer spiritual strength, comfort and encouragement to fellow hikers. We are gratified by reports of meaningful encounters between our chaplain and fellow hikers which have resulted in increased spiritual awareness, deeper faith, and stronger commitment.

Worship Leader

THE REVEREND JIMMY SHERROD

Knoxville native Jimmy Sherrod has been serving the United Methodist Church in song and in word since 1997, when he was still a student at the University of Tennessee. His great-aunt Dot, a lifelong member of Pleasant Hill UMC in east Knox County, asked Jimmy to play the piano for a senior citizens' event at her church, and the rest is history. Jimmy has had an opportunity throughout his career to use his gift of music to direct choirs, work for Preacher J. Bazzel Mull at his radio station, sing in Southern Gospel quartets, lead praise bands, and lead music for the Holston Annual Conference and the Baltimore/Washington Annual Conference, as well as at special events such as the annual Sulphur Springs Camp Meeting near Johnson City. Jimmy earned his Master of Divinity from Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C., and has been appointed pastor of French Broad Circuit in Knoxville (2005-08), associate pastor of Metropolitan Memorial UMC in Washington, D.C. (2008-13), associate pastor of Powell UMC in Knoxville (2013-14) and pastor of Central UMC in Knoxville (2014-today).

Whether serving congregations small or large, traditional or contemporary, Jimmy remains passionate about creating vital worship experiences that connect people with God while challenging them to take what they hear and learn into a world that needs Good News.
